My marriage to Henry ended in January 1533

I was divorced from Henry and had a good pension so that I could live well.

I was only 20 when I had my head chopped off.

I married Henry very soon after the execution of his second wife.

Henry fell in love with me when I came to his court in 1526.

I used to be the lady-in-waiting for two of Henry's wives.

I used to be the lady-in-waiting for two of Henry's wives.

I was married to Henry for 23 years.

I was the child of a German Duke and Henry chose me from a painting.

I had no children of my own but I did love my three step-children.

Henry loved me.
If I had lived,
Henry might have stayed
married to me.

Henry divorced
his first wife
so that he could marry me.

I was accused
of being a witch
and sent to the Tower of London.

Before I
married Henry,
I was married
to his brother,
Arthur.

Henry was angry with me
when I did not give birth to a
son.

After I died,
Henry waited 2
years before
getting married
again.

I was the mother of Henry's only
son.

Henry was my
third husband.
I had four
husbands
altogether.

I gave birth to Elizabeth 1.

I was the mother of Mary 1.

Henry said I
had a face like
a horse.

I nursed Henry
until he died.
