

Multiplication Word Problems

2x table

1. Four children are sitting at a table. They are wearing two shoes each. How many shoes do they have altogether?

2. Nasra, Saheel and Sam have two sweets each. How many sweets do they have altogether?

3. Masiti and Murshed each have two pencils. How many pencils do they have altogether?

4. Five children go swimming. They take off their socks. How many socks are there altogether?

5. One teacher has two desks. How many desks does she have altogether?

6. Four children have two hands each. How many hands do they have altogether?

