

4. Guru Ram Das (1534—1581)

Guru Ram Das started the town of Amritsar, which is still the centre for Sikhism.

He did lots of work here so that the town soon became very big.

In this town he dug a big pool where people could go to wash away their sins.

Amritsar is an important place for Sikhs. They try to visit this town.

He is best known for his service.