

6. Guru Har Gobind (1595—1644)

Guru Har Gobind was worried about poor people and suffering people.

He fought six battles to help people who were not being treated fairly.

He wanted the world to be fair for everyone, but it was not easy. Some people did not think it was right for a religious leader to fight.

He is best known for his justice.