

7. Guru Har Rai (1630—1661)

Guru Har Rai was a kind,
and gentle leader.

He sent people out to spread Sikh ideas all over India.

He worked very hard and lived and ate
the same as the work people around him.

He said that there should be two religious meetings every day.

He is best known for his mercy.