

9. Guru Tegh Bahadur (1621—1675)

Guru Tegh Bahadur fought in some wars and saw some very bad and sad things.

He always remembered to think about his God, instead of only the bad things.

He was eventually killed because he would not give up his beliefs and his faith.

He is best known for his tranquility.